

04 Invitation

Some girls are gorgeous,
Some are engorged too,
Some girls make my blood sing
And my shyness to dance.

Come dance with me.
The harmonies in
The throats of our veins
Are prickling our ears,
And moving our souls
To the corners of our eyes.

This song is about arousal. God made beauty to be desired by the heart. Sexual desire is made by God, and it is good. It is one of God's wedding gifts for cherishing, bonding, and procreation. It is a crown intended for those who will make the marriage covenant with each other and provide for the children who are the product of those loving embraces.
