

Job

John Byron Shank

INTRO Em EmF Em EmF EM EmF Em EmF

Em A
The Lord gives and the Lord takes away

Em A
Blessed be the Name of the Lord

Em A
The Lord gives and the Lord takes away

Em A
Blessed be the Name of the Lord

G D A
He does nothing at all, except from out of His Goodness

C D Em
Blessed be the Name, blessed be the Name of the Lord!

C G D
He says yes and He says no from out of His Goodness

C G D
He says wait and He says go from out of His Goodness

C G D
What He commands that we do is out of His Goodness

C G Em C
What he commands that we not do is His Goodness, too

C D Em
God is good, God is good!

INTRO Em EmF Em EmF ETC.

Em A
Surely He will tear down to build a better thing up

Em A
Blessed be the Name of the Lord

Em A
He will humble me that later I may be safe to exalt

Em A
Blessed be the Name of the Lord

G D A
He prunes me that He might bare more fruit by me

C D Em
He bruises me only to heal me

^C As for me, I am a branch ^Gsnatched away from the ^Dfire
^C There was never, ever any good ^Gfound in me, by myself ^D
^C The good that I do now does not come from me ^D
^C But from Him who lives inside, living out as me ^{Em} ^C
^C Blessed be the Name, ^Dblessed be the Name of the Lord! ^{Em}

INTRO Em EmF Em EmF ETC

^{Em} The Lord gives and the Lord ^Atakes away
^{Em} Blessed be the Name of the Lord ^A
^{Em} The Lord gives and the Lord ^Atakes away
^{Em} Blessed be the Name of the Lord ^A
^G He does nothing at all, except from out of His ^DGoodness ^A
^G He does nothing at all, except from out of His ^DGoodness ^A
^C Blessed be the Name, ^Dblessed be the Name
^C Blessed be the Name, ^Dblessed be the Name
^C Blessed be the Name of the Lord ^D ^{Em}

Em EmF Em EmF ETC.